The position occupied by [] on the Table of Organization for FBIB is Assistant Chief of the Mediterranean Bureau. However, he has been designated by the Director, CIA, by the Assistant Director for Operations, and by the Chief, FBIB, to be in charge of the Cyprus Project until such time as the Cairo Station has been moved to the Island of Cyprus. In this position he is not responsible to [] except for necessary aid and assistance. He is directly responsible to the Chief, FBIB, Washington, D. C. The duties of his position will require that he issue travel orders and travel requests in such number as he considers necessary. He has been delegated with the authority to issue travel orders, but through oversight he was not provided with transportation requests at the time of his departure from the United States.
